Worship Alive!

A joint ministry of the United Church of Rogers Park and the Presbyterian Church of Western Springs and co-sponsored by:

- Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church
- Empower Ministry Team of the Presbytery of Chicago
- Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary Arts Committee
- McCormick Theological Seminary
- Worship, Music, and the Arts Work Group of the Presbytery of Chicago

Charles E. Dickerman Memorial

To honor the memory of Charles E. Dickerman (1932-2007), the Worship Music, and the Arts Work Group of the Presbytery of Chicago has established this scholarship to Worship Alive! Since the 1970's, Charles was a dedicated member of the Worship, Music and the Arts Work Group, serving as moderator for several terms. Charles was also responsible for originating and editing the WMA Newsletter until his death. He and his wife, Barbara, served as co-chairpersons of the Midwest Branch of The Royal School of Church Music, receiving honorary degrees in 1993. His love of worship, music and the arts will be carried on through this scholarship.

What is Worship Alive?

A series of unique interactive workshops modeling worship experiences that:

- embody God's all-embracing love in Jesus Christ;
- are multisensory, participatory and inspiring;
- celebrate multicultural diversity; and
- move persons and communities to acts of justice and liberation.

This series provides resources and training for renewing and enlivening congregational worship.

Who are these workshops for?

Worship Alive workshops are for clergy, musicians, seminarians, and lay persons involved in planning and leading worship. For additional information, contact Mark Bowman at 773-728-8274 or worshipalive@comcast.net.

Scholarship Criteria:

- Current Member of a church within the Presbytery of Chicago
- Limited to 2 people from each congregation
- Non-Clergy
