Week-Long Service Opportunities

DISCOVERING OPPORTUNITIES FOR OUTREACH AND REFLECTION (DOOR), 425 S Central Park Ave

If you're interested in having a trip with housing, food, and activities already planned, DOOR is a simple and excellent way to go. DOOR is a partly-Presbyterian program in multiple cities throughout the US. Their Chicago site is located in a church on the west side where participants sleep and eat. Mission trips can be either a week or a few days long and consist of small-group mission work at a variety of sites, as well as evening speakers, discussion, and worship. Groups are given free time to lead their own discussions and for fellowship activities. For more information, check out <http://doornetwork.org/>.
