Margaret Aymer, MDiv, MPhil, PhD, is Associate Professor of New Testament, and Chair of Biblical Studies, at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. She is a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), serving within the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta. Margaret is the author of First Pure, Then Peaceable: Frederick Douglass, Darkness and the Epistle of James (New York: T&T, 2007), as well as various academic and liturgical articles and resources, including Confessing the Beatitudes, this year's Presbyterian Women's Bible Study. She serves as Chair of the board of AIDS Alliance for Faith and Health, an Atlanta-based non-profit helping those infected with and affected by HIV. She was one of the preachers at the denomination's Big Tent Conference held in July. [From Horizons, the Magazine for Presbyterian Women] Her presentation to us will be based on her work on James.

"From the setting, to the speakers, to the community it builds, everything about the Retreat is worshipful and restoring. Every time I go I return refreshed, encouraged, and strengthened."
